ADVERTISING POLICY

Advertising accepted in the Pennsylvania Psychiatrist will be subject to the following guidelines:

- All advertisements submitted for publication in Pennsylvania Psychiatrist, the e-newsletter of the Pennsylvania Psychiatric Society, as well as website advertisements, must adhere to the American Psychiatric Association's guidelines on advertising.
- Advertising which simulates reading matter will be plainly marked "advertisement" in a type line above or below the insertion.
- Cancellations will not be accepted after the closing date. Pre-payment for display advertisements must be submitted with completed advertising contract. (Classified advertisements will be billed upon publication). Any outstanding payments must be brought up-to-date before any new advertising will be inserted.
- The Pennsylvania Psychiatric Society is only responsible for providing advertising space, and is not liable for the content of advertisements appearing in Pennsylvania Psychiatrist.
- The Pennsylvania Psychiatric Society reserves the right to determine the placement of all advertisements.
- An advertiser may change the copy of the ad in any issue. The ad will be repeated as in the previous issue unless we have not received new copy by the issue deadline.
- The Pennsylvania Psychiatric Society reserves the right to refuse any material submitted for publication that the editor deems unsuitable or not in keeping with the tone of the publication.
- The Pennsylvania Psychiatric Society reserves the right to limit the number of advertisements included in an issue.
- Payment for ads rejected due to content or space limitations will be returned to the advertisers.

Proof of publication will be sent to the advertiser or to the agency.
